Reporting To	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Head of Boarding• Houseparent
Department/Location	Boarding, Wavy Gate, Oxford OX4 1LG
Main Purpose	The main duties of the wardens are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• To be “on duty” on the premises for the specified hours.• To be “on call” for the specified hours.• To be the first point of call for a maximum of 90 students/minimum of 30 (Boarding House dependent).• To address any student welfare issues in a sensible and timely manner, taking the appropriate advice where necessary.• To carry the college mobile phone when on duty and on call and to always answer it promptly.
Hours of Work	The warden timetable is a two-week cycle with each week varying slightly. There are two types of duty – one is described as “on duty” and requires the warden to be on the premises at the Boarding House. The other type of duty is described as “on call” and during this time it is acceptable for the warden to be within ten minutes reach of the Boarding House, as you can be called on at any time to assist the main staff member on duty. This must not be further than three miles from the Boarding House. A warden who is “on duty” or “on call” will be required to carry a mobile telephone which must be answered promptly. In each two-week cycle a warden will work shifts in a pattern that varies from week to week. A short week equates to 18 hours on duty, a long week equates to 28 hours on duty. The longer week is increased hours due to working over the weekend. You will be required to work every second weekend with a separate weekend warden.

	In addition, there are “on call” hours for each warden/houseparent. On your duty nights you will transition to “on call” overnight with the security guard taking over as the staff member awake. You will be required to sleep in the Boarding House on both your “on call” and “on duty” nights In essence the hours are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To be on duty from 5.00 pm to 11.00 pm for your designated on duty weeks. • To be on call from 11:00 pm to 9.00 am for your designated on call weeks. • To be on duty for two weekend days in every two-week cycle, which totals to 14 hours over the weekend.
Duties & Responsibilities Arrivals & Departure Duties & Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Arrival days: On arrival days (typically Saturday and Sunday before the beginning of term) the warden is expected to be available from 8:00 am to welcome new or returning students. This is usually a busy weekend. Duties include administering keys, showing students their rooms and the rest of the facilities, with particular emphasis on the fire exits. • House Meeting: Over the weekend of new arrivals, the warden on duty should call a ‘house meeting’ with all students. The purpose of this meeting is to introduce the students to each other, explain the house rules and regulations, paying particular attention to evening sign-in times, fire safety procedures, exeats and Health & Safety. • Departure days: On departure days (usually the first Saturday and Sunday after the end of the term) the warden is responsible for ensuring that rooms are vacated by the agreed time, keys are returned, rooms are inspected for damage and damages are reported. Daily duties include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To be on duty on site between the hours of 5.00 pm and 11.00 pm and to be on call between the hours of 11.00 pm and 9.00 am, including the weekends you work. As this duty is shared with other wardens, the on duty and on call times are fairly allocated so that there is always somebody on duty between 5.00 pm and 11.00 pm during the week and between 9.00 am and 11.00 pm at the weekend. (any changes to this fixed arrangement must be negotiated between the wardens and cannot be agreed without the approval of the Head of Boarding). • To sign-in the students on your duty nights by 10.00 pm. Students should be fully aware of the rules. • To inform the house parent of any unaccountable absences or late returns.

- To keep a record of all students staying away for the night or weekend and to keep details of their weekend plans and contact numbers (any student that requests permission to stay away from college for a night or weekend, will need to have filled in a “Leave Request” – this is done through our Reach boarding software).
- When on duty, to carry a fully charged phone in order to be contacted by students in the event of an emergency (this will be provided by the college).
